FALL SEMESTER BEGINS AT HIGH STREET GALLERY

GLASSBORO, NJ - High Street Gallery is pleased to open the Rowan University Fall 2010 semester with "Studies", an exhibition of artwork by Rowan student artist Alex Gencarelli of Pompton Plains, to its space in downtown Glassboro beginning September 1 and continuing through September 11.

A closing reception for the exhibition will be held from 6 pm to 9 pm on Thursday, September 9.

"My goal in this show is to cause my viewers to watch the series of videos that I made, and not only think about the interviewee's experiences, but to also think about their personal experiences," Gencarelli says. "The show primarily deals with subject matter such as drinking and sex. The "studies" I put forth are to act as a type of gateway to lead the viewer to think about there own actions and experiences."

High Street Gallery is a student-run and operated gallery space dedicated to assisting Rowan University's student artists in gaining valuable experience in exhibiting their work. The gallery is located at 11 East High Street, Glassboro, NJ, and is open Wednesday through Friday between the hours of 3:30 and 7:30 pm and Saturday from 12 to 4:30 pm.
