COUNTY SUMMER CONCERT SERIES BRINGS OLDE CITY BAND TO GLASSBORO JUNE 27

GLASSBORO – The classic rock sounds of the Olde City Band will highlight Glassboro’s first free Concert in the Park event, slated for Sunday, June 27 at 7:00 p.m. at South Delsea Drive Park. The concert is offered as part of the Gloucester County Board of Chosen Freeholders’ Summer Concert Series and is hosted by Main Street Glassboro.

“These free evening events sponsored by the Freeholder Board are intended to promote quality family recreational activities and we are happy to welcome music fans to Glassboro for one of these concerts,” said Glassboro Mayor Leo J. McCabe.

The Glassboro Unity Day Committee and Main Street Glassboro coordinate community events throughout the year. One June 18, families can enjoy a free viewing of Where the Wild Things Are in New Street Park. On September 3, the fifth Annual Cruise Night Car Show hits Downtown Glassboro and on October 9, they will celebrate the 15th Anniversary of Unity Day. More information about the June 27 concert or any other event is available by contacting Main Street Glassboro at 856-881-0500 or visiting <http://www.glassboroonline.com/#events>.
