Saturday, October 8:
GLASSBORO'S ANNUAL UNITY DAY TO CELEBRATE
DIVERSITY AND PROGRESS IN DOWNTOWN REDEVELOPMENT

GLASSBORO—The Borough of Glassboro and the Glassboro Revitalization Group presents the 16th annual Unity Day celebration on Saturday, October 8 from 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. in downtown Glassboro. The festival is free and open to the public.

Join the Borough as its residents celebrate their diverse cultures in a fun-filled family atmosphere. Local and professional bands will grace the stage all day featuring Where's Pete and Harley's Funk Machine with special performances by Let's Dance Studio. There will be lots of food, along with amusements, crafters and 4H demonstrations to make this an event for kids of all ages.

“Unity Day brings together the residents of Glassboro to celebrate the diversity of our town. This year's Unity Day brings another purpose: to showcase the changing landscape of Downtown Glassboro as we continue with our redevelopment project,” states Councilman Hector Cabezas.

Unity Day encompasses all of College Avenue and Center Street, a portion of High Street from Main to Academy Street and this year will also flow on to Rowan Boulevard if weather permits. In the event of inclement weather the event will move to the Dorothy L. Bullock School (370 East New Street).

Crafter registration is $35. Food vendor registration is $125. Spaces remain to advertise in our ad booklet. For more information please call 856-881-0500.
