

ALUMNI SHOW AT HIGH STREET GALLERY

GLASSBORO, NJ - High Street Gallery is pleased to welcome "Alumni, Go!," an exhibition of artwork from Rowan University's Art Department Alum, to its space in downtown Glassboro beginning June 23 and continuing through July 11. Lucas Leyden, who graduated with a B.F.A.

in Studio Art from Rowan's Art Department in May, is curating the exhibition. An opening reception for the poster show will be held from 7 pm to 9 pm on Friday, June 25.

"I proposed the idea of an alumni show as a way of reconnecting with graduated Rowan Art Majors and also as a way of seeing recent personal works that the artists have been creating," Leyden says. "An exhibition is a fun excuse to see old friends and colleagues and have your work on display, something that is particularly difficult for most students post graduation. This show is about fun, art, and community."

High Street Gallery is a student-run and operated gallery space dedicated to assisting Rowan University's student artists in gaining valuable experience in exhibiting their work. The gallery is located at 11 East High Street, Glassboro, NJ, and is open Wednesday through Friday between the hours of 3:30 and 7:30 pm and Saturday from 12 to 4:30 pm. For additional information or to make a private appointment beyond the hours of operation, contact gallery director Claire Cossaboon at (609) 805-2958.
